Edited by Richard Gill Addictions from an Attachment Perspective Does early trauma lead to addictive behaviour? Contributors describe pathways for understanding and ameliorating addictive suffering. 160pp 2014 ISBN 9781782201076 £17.99

Edited by Andrew Odgers From Broken Attachments to Earned Security is a significant contribution to the field of attachment and the development of empathy, including our understanding of how child rearing affects each aspect of our lives, from the interpersonal to the organisational and societal. 160pp 2014 ISBN 9781782201052 £16.99

Edited by Kate White Talking Bodies addresses the question of ‘How do we Integrate Working with the Body in Psychotherapy from an Attachment & Relational Perspective?’ 176pp 2014 ISBN 9781782201069 £17.99

Edited by Judy Yel-lin and Orit Badouk Epstein Terror Within and Without explores the means by which individuals struggle to cope with exposure to war zones, both large scale conflicts and societal breakdown, and the domestic war zones where adults and children experience violence and sexual abuse. 118pp 2013 ISBN 9781855756373 £14.99

Edited by Sarah Benamer and Kate White Trauma and Attachment contains a rich variety of material that is not usually included in traditional writings on trauma. 112pp 2008 ISBN 9781855756663 £14.99

Edited by Judy Yel-lin and Orit Badouk Epstein Ritual Abuse and Mind Control combines clinical presentations, survivors’ voices, and research material to help address the ways in which we can work clinically with mind control and cult programming from the perspective of relational psychotherapy. 202pp 2011 ISBN 9781855758391 £23.99

Edited by Sarah Benamer Telling Stories? explores the contemporary state of affairs in the understanding and treatment of psychosis. An inclusive approach to mental distress requires that in order to truly understand psychosis we must begin by listening to those who know this from the inside out; the voices and narratives of those who have been condemned as “unanalysable” and mad. 154pp 2010 ISBN 9781855758759 £19.99